after I began my journey at University at Buffalo Law School, my daughter is now doing the very same thing. Francis is now an attorney at our firm, working in the Employment Department with Lori Pinjuh, our Senior Attorney. Joseph is in his third year of law school at Ohio State, and recently accepted an offer from a law firm in Columbus. Stephanie continues to excel in the arts, traveling from Vienna to Madrid with a branch of Pilobolus Dance Theater. Theresa is doing an awesome job in our firm's De portation Department where she continues to learn from and help our awesome litigators. Catherine recently graduated from Cornell, and is currently volunteering at the Cleveland Clinic as she works on applications to medical school. Jacqueline maintains her artistic creativity at Magnificat High School, while Vincent considers a future at either St. Ignatius or St. Edward. Kam is happily half retired. My dear mother, as of this writing, is travelling by herself, having a great time in

Dear Family, Friends, Colleagues, and Clients,

Season's Greetings! I hope our letter finds you all both happy and healthy this holiday season. It is hard to believe that another year has passed us by, but exciting to anticipate the joys, blessings, and challenges that await us in the years to come.

Our family seems to grow as quickly as time passes. Steven is doing well in his second year of law school at Case Western Reserve University. Allison graduated from Boston University after three-and-a-half years, and is now in her first year of law school at the University at Buffalo Law School (my alma mater) where she recently made the Buffalo Human Rights Law Review. It is amazing to think that 35 years

Shanghai. She continues to make her soups and cook for the family twice a week. Such energy!

Like our family, our firm continues to spread its wings across the Eastern United States. In addition to our offices in Atlanta, Cleveland, Columbus, Detroit, and Manhattan, we have excitedly added a new office in Brooklyn. Though New York is facing one of our country's most challenging economic times, the New Yorkers I meet are not only kind and compassionate, but focused and resilient. They give me the unique motivation to do the very best I can, resulting in great challenges and even greater rewards. I have learned that when opportunity knocks on the door, you must take flight and spend some time in the air!

Even though I have to travel a great deal more lately, I cannot be more excited about our firm's growth, and more proud of the hard work displayed by our team. Under the leadership of my partner Scott and me, along with the dedication and persistence of our attorneys and staff, we successfully served thousands of clients.

It has been a year of growth and a year of change. The continual interactions I maintain with the local and national community, along with recognitions I am honored to receive, serve to remind me of how important it is to reflect on time and the manner in which it is spent. I sincerely hope that each of you is afforded the same opportunity to grow, and seriously consider time not as a measurement, but a blessing.

I wish you a wonderful holiday season, and a healthy and prosperous new year.

Warmly yours,
Margaret W. Wong
