time ever we could have our in-office governor to come to the Asian Festival. It meant a lot to us, ... to the Asian community in general. I continue to say that it meant we are positively recognized.

It is my honor to say a few words here. With this opportunity, I would like to share a story with you and indicate why we should strongly support our governor.

After your speech, you responded to my challenge by saying that you would like to establish the Asian Commission in your administration.

Due to the budgetary crisis, we agreed on to have an Advisory Council first. It took me almost 3 years with hard work and persistence we finally got Governor's AAPI Advisory Council established on 4/7/2010.

Governor Strickland was with our first meeting on that day. To make it clear, without Governor's strong support and commitment, we will never have the opportunity to have this entity.

This council is formed with 12 members, throughout the state, age group, and various professions. I am pushing all committees, Health, Civil Rights/Immigration, Art/Culture/Education and Economic Development, to finalize our first report to the Governor by the end of this month.

After Governor's approval, this report will also go to the White House. I am honored and proud to say, this council is working well for our community. In particular, for the future of our community. You can see quite clearly, if we do not have Governor Strickland's support, we will not be able to accomplish so much.

Thank you so much for your contribution for his campaign. I am also pleading with every one of you to canvass for him. It is not just talking here, please knock the doors to help his successful re-election. Just in case you do not like to line up for voting on the election day, we also provide forms for you to pick up to vote by mail. Thank you again for your support.
