Keynote Speaker: Jim Rogers

Chairman, President and CEO Duke Energy

Jim Rogers became chairman, president and CEO of Duke Energy in 2007, having served as chairman and CEO of Cinergy since 1994 and PSI Energy since 1988. He is chair of the Institute for Electric Efficiency, co-chair of the National Action Plan for Energy Efficiency and a board member of the Alliance to Save Energy. He is a director of Cigna Corp. and Applied Materials Inc. He serves on the boards and Executive Committees of the Nuclear Energy Institute and the World Business Council for Sustainable Development. He is a board member of the Institute of Nuclear Power Operations and Business Roundtable. He is lifetime member of the Council on Foreign Relations and a member of the Honorary Committee of the Joint U.S.-China Collaboration on Clean Energy. Newsweek magazine named Rogers to The Global Elite list, "The 50 Most Powerful People in the World in 2008."

Keynote Speech Energy and the Environment:

Challenges and Opportunities for US-China Cooperation

The United States and China are the world's two largest economies, two largest consumers of energy, and unfortunately, hold the distinction of being the world's top two polluters as well. Duke Energy Chairman and CEO Jim Rogers will address the challenges that these two great nations face, as well as, cooperative opportunities, in developing the energy necessary to fuel their growing economies while providing a clean environment to their people and the world.

Please join Greater Cincinnati Chinese Chamber of Commerce in celebrating the 5th Anniversary of the chamber and its effort in fostering innovative relationships between China and the US.
