cided to move the festival outdoors, make it FREE and ask for support from the community. Last year was a success and today we have more people than ever!

We are thankful to our corporate sponsors who appear on the back of your program book, to our other supporters who purchased ad in the program book, to ClevelandPeople.com - our media, sponsor, to Cleveland's Channel 20 for videotaping this entire program, and to the Erie Chinese Journal for its coverage of the festival.

So get ready for an around the world adventure in dancing, singing, and music!
