

梨花女子大學慶祝125周年音樂會暨系列活動

Ewha's 125th Anniversary Concert

Date: August 27th, 2011, 8PM

Place: Kulas Hall, Cleveland Institute of Music

Sponsored by: Ewha Girls' High School Alumnae Association of North America

What is Ewha?

Ewha means 'pear blossom' in Korean, and is the name of the very first Korean girls' school which was originated 125 years ago by two foresighted women who lived in Northeast Ohio. They were Mrs. Mary Scranton who was the founder of Ewha, and Mrs. Lucinda Baldwin who was the very first donor of the school with $88. They were followed by two more principals from Ohio; the second principal, Ms. Louisa Rothweiler and the fourth, Ms. Lulu Frey. Under their leadership from 1890 to 1921, Ewha flourished even more.

125 years ago, Mrs. Mary Scranton started Ewha with one abandoned young girl. Since then Ewha has evolved with time, but still remained as Ewha Girls' High School in her original historical campus. In 1935 it branched out to reach more women becoming a college, which is now known as Ewha Womans University. Today, Ewha has grown dramatically, and is now represented in about 20,000 high school and university female students.

This Ewha's 125th Anniversary concert is being held to celebrate the beautiful 125 years history of Ewha which began right here in Northeast Ohio, and commemorate these two foresighted women whose vision and determination were to educate Far East Korean Women of late 1880's.

This year, the proceeds of this concert will be partly used in providing scholarships to the students of Ravenna, Ohio as a token of our deepest gratitude to this region. The rest will assist in providing scholarships to students who are talented, deserving but the most unfortunate students in Korea, India, Pakistan and northern China bordering North Korea.

Please join in with us for this wonderful event.
