King Lear: Contemporary Legend Theatre of Taiwan

Friday, January 25, 2013 at 7:30 p.m.

"A tour de force performance."
- The New York Times

Don't miss the Cleveland debut of celebrated Taiwanese actor Wu Hsing-kuo depicting multiple characters in this unforgettable adaptation of Shakespeare's monumental tragedy, King Lear.

A remarkable blend of Beijing Opera acting style and visually stunning Western stagecraft, the production mesmerizes the audience with colorful, richly embroidered costumes, dazzling martial arts, contemporary dance, superb visual effects, and live Chinese music and song. Come see Wu Hsing-kuo's awe-inspiring tour de force. Come see amazing.

This performance held at:

Breen Center for the Performing Arts
Saint Ignatius High School
1911 West 30th Street
Cleveland, Ohio 44113
