Here are the two Plain Dealer Rock & Roll Editorials:

The Letters to the Editor:

Vernon Sendelbach: Editorial of April 24, 2015: Published by the Cleveland Plain Dealer

"THE CRADLE OF ROCK IS MEMPHIS"

I am tired of writers John Petkovic ("Cleveland goes wild with tribute bands," April 17) calling Cleveland "the cradle of rock 'n' Roll and where R&R began."

Cleveland had little to do with rock 'n' roll's beginnings. No progenitors were from here, no recording studios like Saks or Sun.

Memphis is the cradle of rock 'n' roll. Some doubt that Cleveland disc jockey Alan Freed even coined the term rock 'n' roll. Just as Beats did not originate in San Francisco just because Herb Coen made up a term "beatniks," so Cleveland has nothing to make it the "cradle of rock."

Jack Craciun III: Editorial of April 30, 2015: Issued to the Plain Dealer

"Cleveland's rock roots run deep:" (PD Letter to the Editor)

Posted on Cleveland has nothing to make it the "Cradle of Rock and Roll": Letter to the Editor 5/7/2015 2:58 PM (Click on above link to leave a comment and like).

Truth-be-told regarding "The Cradle of Rock is Memphis" editorial dated Friday April 24th, 2015.

The inspiring "birth" of rock, like the birth of mankind, lives in the DNA and spirit of Africans. Rock was incubated in America within tens of thousands of their souls, located in hundreds of American hamlets, including Memphis and Cleveland. The nomenclature of Rock and Roll originated on their lips, interpreting desires. Alan Freed knew this and was the first to name, and broadcast that name from Cleveland, the musical evolution of the spirit of Jazz, Blues & Soul he titled and branded as "Rock and Roll."

Rock left its "cradle" from Cleveland in 1970 when Jack Ambrozic, the General Manager, and Billy Bass, its first Program Director, joined forces to establish Cleveland's WNCR FM Radio and its Progressive Rock Format. WNCR became the first commercially successful FM radio station in US broadcasting history. WNCR went on to become the number one FM radio station in America (Cream Magazine) and the number one radio station in Cleveland. Billy Bass became the first black Program Director of a US major market number one rated station. Billy moved from WNCR to become the founder and first Program Director of WMMS. (The Plain Dealer & Scene magazine archives will prove this history.)

You have to love Vernon for his fearless Letter to the Editors of the PD, Thank you Vernon for putting the "squeeze" on us.

I recall Rev. Redding's guidance as the Spiritual Director of The Robert F Kennedy Scholarship Fund, Inc., he said, "how can you know the truth when no one has ever told you the truth?" He also said and the PD published it way back in 78 or 79, "You can't rehabilitate someone who has never been habituated to be gin with." Truth be Told. Love, Jack
