70th Annual One World Day

Hosted by the Cleveland Cultural Gardens

Don't Miss the 70th Annual One World Day on August 23, 2015! An event hosted by the Cleveland Cultural Gardens in partnership with the City of Cleveland at the MLK and East Blvd. with FREE parking at Metroparks and VA Parking Lots.

Come experience the Cultural Gardens and Ethnic Foods from the 29+ gardens' representatives, while there, take a free Lolly the Trolley tour to travel 'Around the World' through the gardens.

Performances and activities will filled up the gardens plus 3 stages pack with world renown talents that will make you appreciate the diversity what City of Cleveland offers.

Event starts at 11am with activities all over, such as the flag-raising ceremony at the Vietnamese Garden to Dragon Performances at the Chinese Cultral Garden to the Parade of Flags at noon starting from the British Cultural Garden and ending at MLK's Hugarian Cultural Garden and many other activities.

Free shuttle services will provide you access from VA Parking Lot to the Chinese Garden and the South Gate are while people parking at the Metroparks can easily walk to the North Gate.

In addition, check out some other ethnic vendors like Slyman's, Hafbrauhaus Cleveland, Rudy's Strudel and Bakery and many others will delight everyone with their signature meals.

Join us also with a very important opportunity to celebrate the new citizens during the Naturalization Ceremony as well as the grand finale at the Liberty Stage presented by the Cleveland International Folk Festival.

Sill not convinced? Grab our detailed beautiful 80-page booklet now at www.cleowd.org and check it out! Or grab a hard copy on August 23 and celebrate a day of Cultural Diversity, Cleveland IS the place to be!
