

OCA 2016 Summer Internship Applications are Now Open

WASHINGTON, D.C. - OCA - Asian Pacific American Advocates is now accepting applications for its 2016 Summer Internship Program.

As OCA continues with the 26th year of its signature internship program, we invite student advocates from all across the nation to apply for the opportunity to be engaged in advocacy and professional development through a national organization.

"Over these past 26 years, our interns have gained valuable professional experience and personal connections through our internship program. Many of our interns have gone on to prestigious careers in the advocacy, government, and corporate sector. For many, the OCA internship is an opportunity for a young person to better define their goals and achieve success in their chosen careers, and we look forwards to the continuation of the success of the OCA internship program," said Ken Lee, OCA Chief Executive Officer.

During the 10 week program (June 8, 2016 - August 14, 2016), OCA interns take on full time positions in federal agencies, non-profit organizations, congressional offices, and in public affairs units of corporations in the Washington D.C. metro area. Placements are determined by considering each intern's background, interest, and skill level. Past interns have also gained valuable exposure to national advocacy efforts, which have helped enhance their activities in their local campuses and communities. Other intern alumni have returned to Washington D.C. for full-time employment and a life in public service.

Eligible candidates include full-time undergraduates and recent graduates of any two-year or four-year institutions. Interns are provided a living stipend of $2,500.00 dollars for the 10-week program.

Click here to directly access the on-line application. Applications and support materials must be submitted by Friday, February 26, 2016 at 11:00 PM EST. For more information on the OCA Internship Program as well as the application, click here.

SLOVENIAN KURETOVANJE COMES TO CLEVELAND

The East Side's Historic Slovenian Community Holds Winter Carnival

Kurentovanje (koo-rah-n-toh-VAHN-yay).

Kurent, which at one time were believed to have the power to chase away winter and usher in spring, are the central figures of the annual Kurentovanje festival.

Kurentovanje is a centuries old Slovenian rite of spring and fertility event. The modern Kurentovanje festivities reemerged in the city of Ptuj, Slovenia in the 1960s.

CLEVELAND KURETOVANJE is run by a volunteer steering committee and is supported by in-kind donations and sponsorships from businesses and organizations. Donations of all kinds are accepted through the St. Clair Superior Development Corporation, the festival's non-profit fiscal agent.

The community organized Kurentovanje takes place on St. Clair Avenue between East 62nd and Addison Road, on Feb 6, 2016. Entrance is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Cynthia Brookins of the St. Clair Superior Development Corporation at (216-881-0644, ext. 101).

The 2016 Festival offers unique sponsorship opportunities.
