The East Side's Historic Slovenian Community Holds Winter Carnival

Kurentovanje (koo-rah-n-toh-VAHN-yay), Kurent, which at one time were believed to have the power to chase away winter and usher in spring, are the central figures of the annual Kurentovanje festival.

Kurentovanje is a centuries old Slovenian rite of spring and fertility event. The modern Kurentovanje festivities reemerged in the city of Ptuj, Slovenia in the 1960s.

CLEVELAND KURETOVANJE is run by a volunteer steering committee and is supported by in-kind donations and sponsorships from businesses and organizations. Donations of all kinds are accepted through Slovenian Museum & Archives.

The community organized Kurentovanje takes place on St. Clair Avenue between East 62nd and Addison Road, on March 2nd, 2019. Entrance is free and open to the public. For more information, visit our website: www.clevelandkurentovanje.com

The 2019 Festival offers unique sponsorship opportunities.
