Internship Program

Internships

The OCA Internship is a 10 week summer program that aims to cultivate Asian American and Pacific Islander leaders by providing hands-on experience working in professional settings and addressing the issues affecting our community. Interns are placed in both public and private sectors within Washington, D.C. Alumni have gone on to become legislative directors, non-profit directors, and leaders in our community. Our students are provided a living stipend for the duration of their internship as well as access to our leadership and advocacy supplementary programs.

Sama Sama

Indonesian for 'together', our Sama Sama sessions gather our interns once a week in order to engage issues that affect the AAPI community. Topics include identity, mental health, and intersectionality in order to create more compassionate and educated AAPI advocates.

Advocacy

Our interns are taught skills such as researching public policy issues, framing, and public speaking in order to sharpen their advocacy skills. Students are given the opportunity to practice advocating for their causes by visiting Hill offices and speaking with legislative staffers. The ultimate goal is for our interns to return to their local communities to not only advance their causes but also to teach others how to affect change.

Who We Are

Founded in 1973, OCA - Asian Pacific American Advocates is a 501(c)(3) national non-profit, membership-driven organization based in Washington, D.C. with over 100 chapters and affiliates around the country. ### Our Mission
