

Global Cleveland has been working steadily to provide language access for our international community members whose English is a learning language. It is important to provide our international friends and family access to important

Help us provide language access public health information. We have activated our network of volunteers to provide translations of simple messages from Governor DeWine's office, Ohio's Department of Public Health, the CDC, Cuyahoga County and the City of Cleveland.

Global Cleveland has been able to activate an incredible team of volunteers within the international community to provide translation for Cleveland and the surrounding area.

While our translators have been nothing short than amazing, we understand they are providing our organization and their community with a much-needed service, even while they are working remotely, homeschooling their children and worrying about their family. We are so grateful for their assistance during these challenging times.

We would like to begin compensating our translators as we anticipate the need for language access to only increase over the coming months. Although we appreciate their volunteerism, our need keeps increasing. Already we have been asked by other organizations in Cleveland to help translate their material.

Right now, we can translate COVID-19 public health information in the following languages: Spanish, Russian, Turkish, Albanian, French, Nepali, Arabic, Mandarin, Romanian, Ukrainian, Bulgarian, Swahili, Croatian, Japanese and Somali as well as many others. We also would like to expand into other languages to be representative of all the communities in Greater Cleveland and surrounding area.

Access to critical public health information from trusted sources is a significant factor in helping stop the spread of this terrible disease. We ask that you please consider making a special gift to Global Cleveland to help us continue to provide language access resources to keep all of our international community informed, so everyone stays safe and healthy.

Please join us this Friday, April 3rd at noon for a Facebook Live discussion with me about Global Cleveland's efforts surrounding language access.

Wishing you continued good health,

Joe Cimperman

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE | 202-863-8614

共和黨全國委員會(RNC)主席在簽署《美國人救濟法案》時的聲明

華盛頓特區 -- 共和黨全國委員會主席羅娜·麥克丹尼爾(Ronna McDaniel)在唐納德·川普總統簽署 CARES 法案成為法律後發表了以下聲明:

從一開始,川普總統就誓言將聯邦政府的全部資源用於保護美國人民,並幫助我們的國家度過由冠狀病毒引起的經濟風暴。今天,他再次兌現了他的誓言。

這種兩黨互助的救助方案是川普總統

領導層的直接產物,將為最需要的地方提供幫助,包括處於戰鬥最前沿的醫院和醫護人員,正掙扎著保持正常營業的小企業,以及正在適應這種前所未有的情況的全美數百萬個家庭。

儘管許多民主黨人和媒體人士繼續試圖將這一流行病政治化,川普總統仍繼續領導著美國並把美國人民放在首位。我感謝我們的總統,他的團隊以及抵制黨爭政治並努力使美國人民獲得急需的救濟的國會議員。
