Several VIPs will be attending including a fellow filmmaker/comedian from Atlanta, a Distributor's CEO, another distributor, etc. Use this opportunity to meet talented filmmakers or get your distribution questions asked and/or suggest your film.

Synopsis:

'In the future... Revenge has no limit.' Wu Lin The Society is set in the year 2050 when pollution and viruses are rampant. People need to wear masks to be able to breathe easy. But when people start to die mysteriously, the police thinks it is the work of a serial killer. Rumors are whispered about a demon that is actually behind the rampage. The detectives must hurry to solve the mystery to stop the killings.
