Situational Awareness Intervention Workshop

November 16, 2021

3:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. PT | 4:30 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. MT
5:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. CT | 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. ET

In response to the increased rise of Anti-Asian/American, xenophobic harassment, and anti-hate towards marginalized communities of color, OCA is providing educational and awareness tools to combat these types of systemic oppression.

This workshop is a free, 1.5-hour, interactive training to teach people on how to be a confident and effective bystander against racism and discrimination. At the end of the training, each participant will have the tools to be able to intervene as a bystander whenever they see or experience harassment.

Pre-registration is required for this 1.5 hour training via Zoom.

WHAT YOU WILL EXPERIENCE

- Clear understanding of the training's goals and community agreements
- Learn and identify your own power, privilege, bias, and race in order to become an effective bystander
- Learn bystander intervention strategies, such as our RESPECT technique
- Meet and network with other participants from diverse backgrounds and organizations

WHO CAN ATTEND THE TRAINING?

- College students
- Educators
- Community organizers and activists
- Non-profit organizations
- For-Profit/Corporations and employees
- People in leadership positions
- Adults who want to make a difference in the community

Activate YOUR power.
