1 year Anniversary of the Dobbs Decision
Saturday, June 24th, marked the one year anniversary of the Supreme Court's decision to overturn Roe v. Wade. The devastating impact of state abortion bans is clear. More than 23 million women in the US - one in three - live in one of the 18 states with an abortion ban currently in effect. In nearly all these states, doctors could be charged with a felony for simply doing their jobs. In states like Texas, a doctor could be imprisoned for life for performing an abortion. Women are being denied essential medical care to preserve their health and save their lives. They've been turned away from emergency rooms, forced to delay care, and made to travel hundreds of miles for care.

In the face of these attacks, the Biden-Harris Administration is committed to fighting for reproductive rights including by taking meaningful executive action to protect access to reproductive health care, that has:

- * Ensured women receive the medical care they need in an emergency, such as a miscarriage;
- * Defended access to safe and effective medication abortion; and
- * Strengthened privacy protections for patients and doctors.

The President and Vice President will continue to protect access to reproductive health care and call on Congress to restore the protections of Roe v. Wade in federal law once and for all.

Statement from President Joe Biden on the Anniversary of Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization

On Saturday, June 24th, Vice President Harris was in Charlotte, North Carolina to rally alongside those fighting for reproductive freedom and discussing the urgent health crisis our country faces.

Vice President Kamala Harris @VP
 I am speaking in Charlotte, North Carolina about the health care crisis caused by the Supreme Court's decision to overturn Roe v. Wade. Tune in as I discuss the fight ahead.

Vice President's Remarks

On Tuesday, June 20th, in the lead up to one year following the Supreme Court overturning Roe v. Wade, Vice President Harris was in Dallas, TX, for an exclusive MSNBC discussion about the impact of the Dobbs decision on the American public. Joining the conversation was Joy Reid, health care providers, a patient, and advocates.

On Tuesday, June 20th, ahead of the one-year anniversary of the Supreme Court's decision in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, First Lady Jill Biden hosted a conversation at the White House with Assistant to the President and Director of the White House Gender Policy Council Jennifer Klein about the impact the Dobbs decision has had and will continue to have on women's health and lives. The First Lady and Jennifer Klein met with women from across the country who have been denied essential medical care. The conversation highlighted their stories and the Biden-Harris Administration's commitment to protecting access to reproductive health care.

Jill Biden @FLOTUS
 Since the Dobbs decision one year ago, far too many women have experienced devastating consequences to their health, their fertility, and their lives.

Today, Anya, Austin, Nancy, and Elizabeth joined me at the White House to courageously share their stories.

First Lady Jill Biden's Remarks

On Saturday, June 24th, Second Gentleman Doug Emhoff spoke with healthcare providers who have been impacted by the Supreme Court's decision. Since the Supreme Court's decision the Second Gentleman has joined the Vice President on the road and called on men to join the movement in ensuring that all people have access to reproductive healthcare

Douglas Emhoff @SecondGentleman
 One year after the Supreme Court's decision to overturn Roe v. Wade, I spoke to health care providers about the challenges they face, how abortion bans impact their patients and lives, and what they are seeing on the ground.

President Biden Issues Executive Order on Strengthening Access to Contraception

On Friday, June 23rd, President Biden issued an Executive Order on Strengthening Access to Affordable, High-Quality Contraception and Family Planning Services. This will be the third Executive Order on reproductive health care access that the President has signed since the Supreme Court's decision in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, and the first focused specifically on protecting and expanding access to contraception.

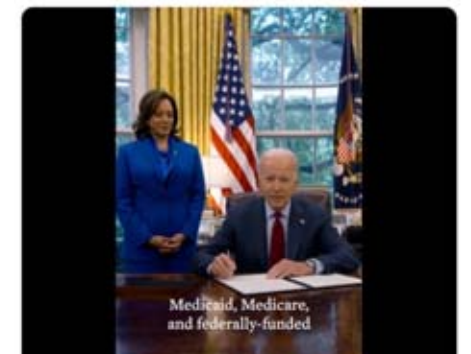

Through this Executive Order, the President will announce actions to:

- * Improve Contraception Access and Affordability for Women with Private Health Insurance.
- * Promote Increased Access to Over-the-Counter Contraception.
- * Support Family Planning Services and Supplies through the Medicaid Program.

President Biden @POTUS
 When Roe v. Wade was overturned, we committed that we'd never stop fighting for your reproductive rights.

That hasn't changed.

Today, I signed a third reproductive health care Executive Order that strengthens access to contraception - an essential part of reproductive care.

* Improve the Coverage of Contraception through the Medicare Program.

* Support Access to Contraception for Service Members, Veterans, and Federal Employees.

* Bolster Contraception Access Across Federally-Supported Health Care Programs.

* Support Access to Affordable Contraception for Employees and College Students.

* Promote Research and Data Analysis on Contraception Access.

President Biden Participates in a Meeting on Artificial Intelligence with Civil Society Leaders

On Tuesday, June 20th, President Biden traveled to San Francisco to discuss his Administration's commitment to seize the opportunities and managing the risks of Artificial Intelligence.

President Biden @POTUS
 I sat down with experts at the intersection of technology and society who provided a range of perspectives on AI's enormous promise and risks.

In seizing this moment of technological change, we also need to manage the risks.

My Administration is on it.

President Biden met with the Center for Humane Technology, Common Sense Media, Khan Academy, Algorithmic Justice League, Allen Institute for Artificial Intelligence, and University of California. At the event they spoke to the challenges posed by AI on the workforce and children, the harm from potential bias, and the potential benefits it holds for education and medicine.

Biden- Harris Administration Makes Historic Investments to Build Climate Resilience

On Monday, June 19th, in Palo Alto, California, the President announced that the Biden-Harris Administration is making the most significant climate investments in history, in areas such as clean energy, environmental justice, conservation, and much more. The Administration will cut 1 billion tons of carbon emission a year and create millions of good-paying jobs. These investments focus on reducing reliance on fossil fuels and equipping communities to better withstand the impact of climate change.

The Administration's efforts include the Department of Commerce's Climate Resilience Regional Challenge, which will provide $600 million to coastal and Great Lakes communities in their efforts to protect against the impacts of climate change, the Department of Energy's $2 billion investment in modernizing our electric grid, and hosting the first-ever White House summit convening local, state, Tribal, and territorial leaders focused on climate resilience.
