Hate Crime?

A hate crime is a traditional offense like murder, arson, or vandalism with an added element of bias.

The FBI has defined a hate crime as a "criminal offense against a person or property motivated in whole or in part by an offender's bias" against:

- Race
- Religion
- Disability
- Sexual Orientation
- Ethnicity
- Gender
- or Gender Identity

Submit a Hate Crime Report online at Tips.fbi.gov or call 1-800-CALL FBI

Hate itself is not a crime—and the FBI is mindful of protecting freedom of speech and other civil liberties.

To Report a Hate Crime:

If you believe you are the victim of or witnessed a hate crime—

- 1 Call 911 and report the crime to your campus, state or local police. Police officers may reach out to you for more information as they investigate the crime.
 - 2 Quickly follow up this report by reporting the crime to the (FBI)
- Report a hate crime to the FBI online at: tips.fbi.gov or call 1-800-CALL FBI
- Call the FBI at 1-800-CALL-FBI (1-800-225-5324). You can also reach out to your local FBI field office. Find the phone number for the FBI field office closest to you at www.fbi.gov/contact-us/field-offices.

The FBI may reach out to you for more information as they investigate the crime.

In an emergency, dial 9-1-1 or your local police to get immediate help.
