President Bush Celebrates Asian Pacific American Heritage Month

On May 12, President Bush celebrated Asian Pacific American Heritage Month at the White House and presented the President's Volunteer Service Award to five Americans who have completed significant volunteer service to their communities.

Dottie Eng, Virginia Gan-zon-Sturwold, Durai Pandithurai, Sister Theresa Pham, and Ravi Sankar were recognized by the President and received the President's Volunteer

American community members, including active duty military and veterans.

The President also met with the members of the President's Advisory Commission on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders prior to the event. He created the Commission in 2004 to improve the opportunities for Asian Pacific Americans in small business development. At the event, President Bush announced that he signed an executive order to renew the Commission for another year and to continue its good work on behalf of the community.
